Dear Mimi,
We sure have had kicks sitting behind each other, didn't we? I'll never forget history class and you and [illegible] will you?
Best of luck to a real sharp

Dear Mimi,
Your a real sharp kid, stay the way you are. Have fun this summer & I hope I see you next year.

Kathy Schwab

---

Dear Mimi,
You're as sharp
as they come, keep it up. How is it to have only a crazy tan! See ya in the summer!

Bev Trigg

---

Mimi
It's been a great year with you. Have a ball this summer & I'll see you. Be good (?)

Cissy

---

Dear Mimi,
Always keep personality that sweet personality that you have had for the past two years. Don't get too brown at the beach this summer.

Love,
Joan.

Mimi,
You're as sharp
as they come and don't change. I hope to see you next year.

Hi Mi!
Gee how is it to have a real sharp tan. You know, You're the one of the few of your crowd that was really friendly to me. Good Luck.

Love ya!

Dear Meme.
Best of luck in future years, you little
bum. See you this summer at beach. That's probably the only place ya will be.
Be good! · Cus.

Mimi,
We have really had many kicks this year. Too bad you wasn't at the Mimi. We had many kicks. We'll see each other during the summer.

Mi Mi,
To a fine gal. It has really been fun this year with fine kids like you for

Mimi,
It has been fun knowing you this year. I will never forget the crazy times we had in Geometry class with Mr. Dugan. I will look forward to seeing all you guys at the beach during the summer. If I go to I.N.M. next year please write me a letter sometime.
Lots of luck always

P.S. Why don't you go get a tan. (just kidding)

Dedication

To our Heavenly Mother we dedicate the first Annual edited under the title of Marían. To her whose "most radiant crown of glory seems to shine more brilliantly" in this her anniversary year, we offer this edition so that our "devotion to the Mother of God may be made daily more ardent."

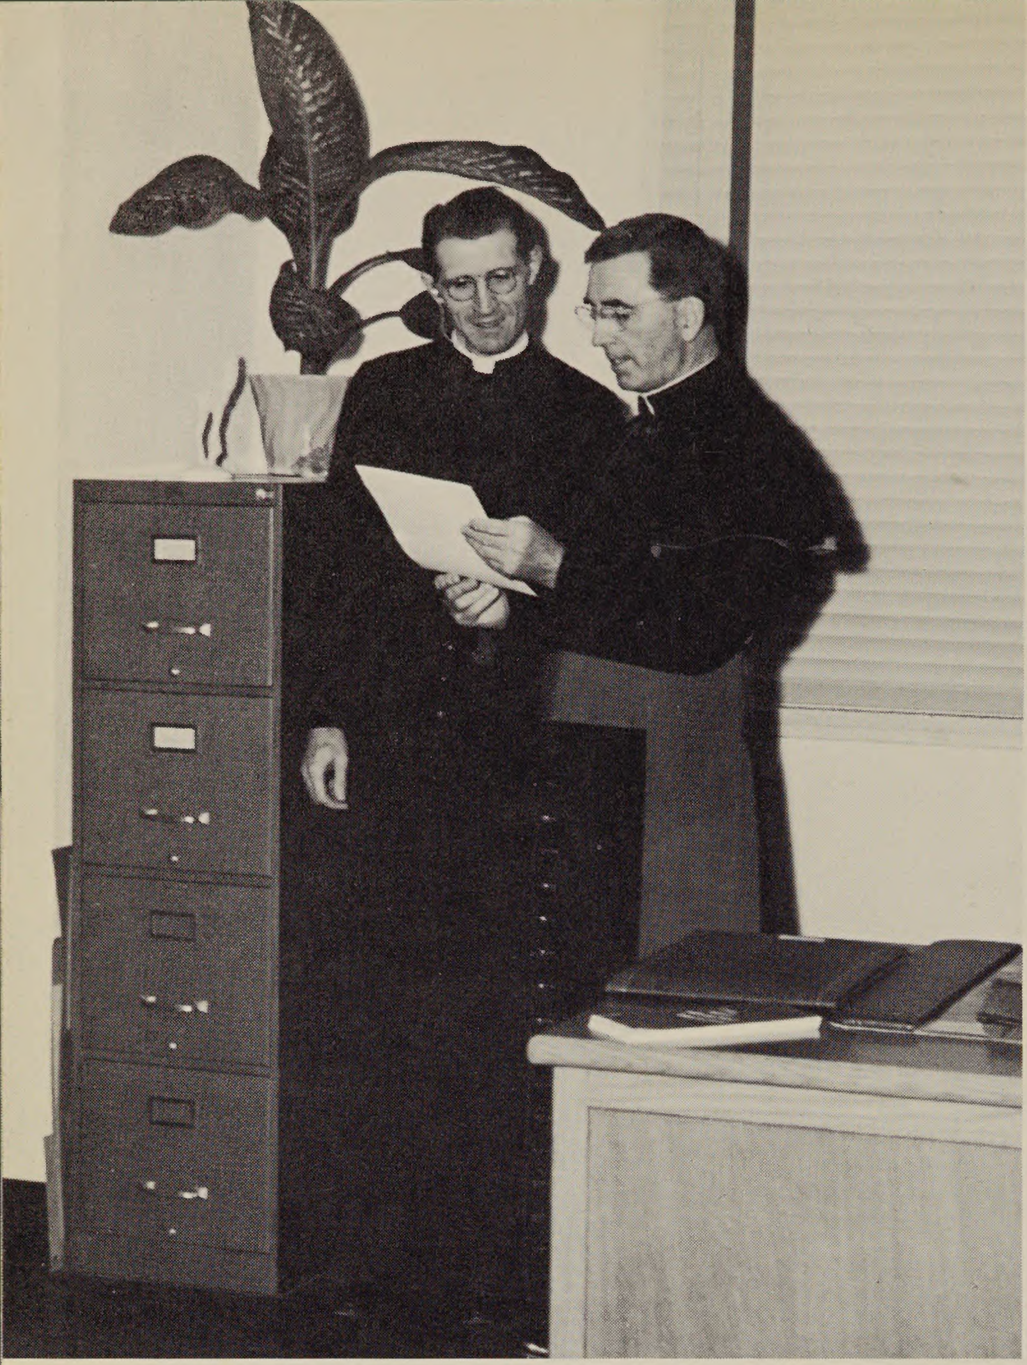
SODALIST

LEGIONARY

REVEREND GEORGE M. RICE, SUPERINTENDENT OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS



MONSIGNOR OWEN HANNON, PASTOR OF OUR LADY OF THE SACRED HEART CHURCH

Administration

With His Excellency as the inspiration; Monsignor Owen Hannon, the benefactor and friend; Reverend George M. Rice, the guide and guardian; the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Orange and zealous lay teachers as instructors and counselors; Rosary will continue to form Christian youths molded to meet the needs of a modern world.

THE MOST REVEREND CHARLES F. BUDDY

BISHOP OF SAN DIEGO

To the Graduates of Our Lady of Rosary:

Most Cordial congratulations!

To reach the second scholastic milestone is a reassuring achievement. You have done well. Wisely, lovingly, with filial devotion your sparkling Annual reflects The Marian Year.

Because the Queen of Heaven guided you safely along the elementary and secondary pathways, constantly invoke her maternal help to see you to the journey's end. Indeed, you may envision the Blessed Virgin Mary, Star of the Sea, shining on your life's program, perfectly and beautifully designed by Divine Providence.

Your beloved pastor, Monsignor Hannon and the zealous priests who assist him, your devoted parents, your staff of splendid educators, implore the Holy Spirit of Wisdom to fortify your high resolves. May you never forget His inspiring challenge: —

> "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life."
> (Apocalypse II:10)

With a triple blessing,

Devotedly your servant in J. M. J.,

Dear Graduates,

Yours is a great privilege—Graduation in this significant Marían Year.

Make your loyalty to Our Lady evident by seeking her guidance in ways of virtue, and may God grant that you find courage in her who is "strong as an army in battle array."

O Mary—

"Though degraded by our faults and overwhelmed by infinite misery, we admire and praise the peerless richness of sublime gifts with which God has filled you, above every other mere creature from the first moment of your Conception until the day on which, after your Assumption into heaven, He crowned you Queen of the universe."

Our Sodality

A most significant organization at Rosary is the Sodality of Our Lady of Fatima. It aims to build its members upon a solidly Christian motif, making the entire pattern one of living growth in imitation of Mary Immaculate. All active members, led by their respective chairman, carry on their work both spiritual and corporal, within the parish to which they belong.

These activities include the monthly reception of Holy Communion in a group; wholehearted participation in parish projects; and the practice of Mary-like conduct at all times.

SODALITY OFFICERS
Joy Rockie, Secretary; Joyce Bentley, Grand Prefect; Mary Korander, Vice-Prefect; Beverly Johnson, Treasurer.

Jayce Bentley, ardent and exemplary Sadality Prefect, has helped ta bring Sadalists in her charge under the mantle af Mary.

My Soul Magnifies The Lord

Elaine Dutcher, Alice Borlin, Jane Sorensen, and Pat Kendal keep the vigil lights in order.

Ann Kamb, Diane Simons, Mary Virginia Kelly, and Beverly Bainbridge prepare the altar for Holy Mass.

Legion of our Lady of the Rosary

Since many students desire greater sacrifices for our Lady and her Divine Son than is required by the Sodality, they profess themselves Legionaries. This organization stresses deep devotion to the Sacred Heart by encouraging home enthronements, hours of night adoration, and distribution of the monthly League leaflets.

Its members accept a private rule of life which governs their spiritual accomplishments, and obey a written Constitution which moderates their daily living.

Homemaking includes growth of personality and of Christlikeness in the members of the family group. It means the creation of a happy and satisfying Christian atmosphere in the home—an atmosphere that has its source in God. The primary objective of Catholic homemaking education seeks to form strong-principled young women who will recognize the importance to society and to the nation of family unity and stability.

Rosary's Pioneer Staff

Student journalism cultivates orderly thinking and writing and develops a sense of responsibility to the school and its ideals. Rosary's PIONEER strives to follow these principles while presenting to the Student Body problems of school management and government, and encouraging interest in these activities.

By working as a school journalist, the student learns to think clearly and write logically while acquiring a background of experience in many phases of newspaper publishing.

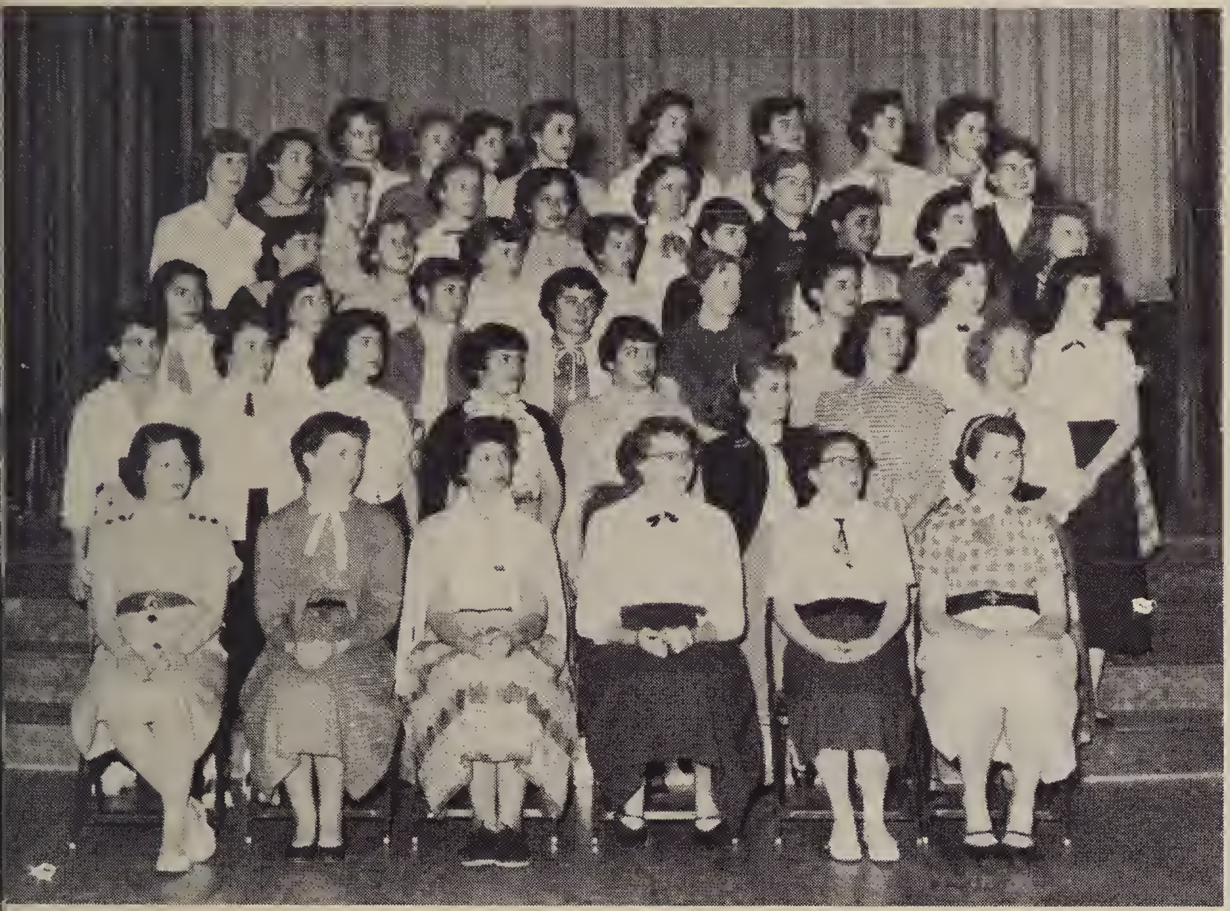
R.H.S. Choir prepares for active participation in the various Church services.

Music, both vocal and instrumental, takes highest rank in the cultural training of youth. The Choir appreciates the richness of liturgical chant; the Glee club benefits from Dr. Nyvall's professional and artistic interpretation of European folk songs; the participants in the Annual Music Festival share the honors of successful and beautiful choral ensembles.

Mary Vialette and Verdi Hastings review their solo numbers for the Christmas Pageant.



The Annual Music Festival finds Rosary well represented by this special singing group.

O Mary—

"Well-beloved of God, hear the ardent cry which rises up from every heart in this year dedicated to you. Bend tenderly over our aching wounds. Convert the wicked, dry the tears of the afflicted and oppressed, comfort the poor and humble, quench hatreds, sweeten harshness, safeguard the flower of purity in youth."

Sorority group, Antainette Cusenzo, Shoron Smith, Moonyeen Turner, Mory Vialette, Mory Karander, Marcia Moran, Bernodette Dunphy, Borbaro Lee, and Morianne Montgamery, unsuspectingly greet the murderess, far left, portrayed by Coral Borgerding.

Joyce Bentley and Jacque Larenz apply make-up to Maanyeen Turner, Marcio Maran, and Mary Vialette.

Drama Doings

Combining mystery, drama, and comedy, the Seniors presented their play, NINE GIRLS, on February 10th and 12th. Both performances were well-received by appreciative audiences.

Jubilant cast and director, Miss Marie Dzajic (center) receive flowers after final curtain.

"Protect the holy Church, make all men feel the attraction of Christian goodness. In your name, resounding harmoniously in heaven, may they recognize that they are brothers, and that the nations are members of one family, upon which may there shine forth the sun of a universal and sincere peace."

G.A.A. President Marcia Maran capably directs sports activities for the year.

The Girls' Athletic Association of Rosary High School has, since its origin, endeavored to promote a program that fosters sportsmanship and a healthy spirit of competition among all its members.

Undefeated Basketball Varsity: Guodolupe Bitterlin, Noncie Bruce, Beverly Boinbridge, Corol Wellong, Dione Simons, Marion Kupholdt, Johanna Pendleton, Ann Kamb, Morie Komb, and Mory Jone Pernicono.

"We're with you team, so fight!" Cheerleaders Pot Lourence, Koy Coin, and Mary Lou Lehrke lead cheers and songs for the blue and white.

Senior team members who captured the intramural basketball trophy:

Standing: Marcio Moran, Jocque Lorenz, Morion Kuphaldt, Diane Simons, Yolanda Babin, Mory Karonder.

Kneeling: Mary Violette, Maanyeen Turner, Carol Trent, Fronkie Zepp.

Basketball ranks high on Rosary's sports agenda. Competition is keen during intra-mural and varsity games, both of which are well attended. Facing the opposition of Regina Coeli, Academy, State College, and Mater Dei, Rosary rallies to defeat the quartet, chalking up a sterling record of four wins, no losses.

Regina Coeli and Rosary vie for the ball.

It's a tossup between seniors and sophs.

Up, up and away! Another basket for R.H.S.

A narrow escape! Rosary—23, State College—22.

Another tossup. Seniors and sophs fight for the advantage.

A tense moment in the Regina Coeli game.

Mary Jane Harrell and Cookie Harde rehearse their pantomime for Homecoming entertainment.

March 18 marked the date of Rosary's third annual Homecoming. A spirited basketball game between varsity and alumnae initiated the evening's events. Following the victory of the varsity, 28 to 11, the drill competition was announced and the military judges introduced. A silent crowd watched sophomores outshine competing classes, and walk away with the first award. While judges tallied their scores, all were invited into the auditorium to view slides depicting the G.A.A. "history", and to enjoy entertainment provided by various classes. The festivities were climaxed by the presentation of the drill team trophy to the sophomores. Afterward, the litter of decorations, cups, and hot dog wrappers gave ample evidence of an exciting, fun-packed evening.

Alumnae revisit the campus only to "suffer" basketball defeat
